Re: Application for Canadian Study Permit

Dear Visa Officer,

[Write an introductory sentence or paragraph noting why you are requesting a study permit. Use your own words, be concise and truthful.]

Request for Study Permit

[Below are some suggestions for things to include in this section]

- Discuss your reasons for selecting Canada as your study destination.
- Why have you have chosen not to pursue your studies in your home country or a neighboring country?
- Detail how your program of study at VFS complements and enhances your previous education or work experience.
- Describe any research you conducted on universities in your home country and abroad, and justify your decision to choose VFS. Highlight the factors that attracted you to VFS over other schools.
- Show how attending VFS will contribute to your future career prospects, and personal and professional development when you return to your home country.

This document serves as a broad framework for drafting a letter of explanation to bolster your study permit application and is offered as an example. Please customize it to align with your specific situation and ensure that all information provided in your application is truthful and precise.

Financial Support

[IRCC requires that students provide proof of a minimum $22,985 CAD to cover cost-of-living expenses while residing in Canada. In this section, note the amount you have available and include supporting documentation noting the amount and origin of your financial resources. Include additional details about your financial ability to cover the cost of tuition and travel expenses.]

Ties to Home Country/Country of Residence

- [If you are submitting your application from a country of residence other than your nation of citizenship, it is important to show proof of your current immigration status in that country. Also, provide evidence of connections to both your home country and your current country of residence. Connections could include relationship or family ties, financial or property ties, employment, etc.]
- [Describe your intentions upon graduation from VFS. Do you plan to return to your country of residence? Do you have employment or family commitments that require you to return home after completion of the program? If you are not planning to return to your home country, describe the feasibility of your future plans in relation to your immigration status.]

Additional Details

[In this final section, express your understanding of the obligations connected with holding a study permit in Canada. Confirm your awareness of the requirement to leave the country at the conclusion of your stay. And, if applicable, provide details of your travel history and affirm whether you have adhered to the immigration regulations of those respective countries during your visits.

Thank you for reviewing my application.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
